

10 Steps to Communication Access

1. Find out more.

Go to twowaystreet.com.au/communicationaccess to find out more and watch the video.

2. Confirm your interest.

Contact Two Way Street to speak with one of our consultants.

1	_____
2	_____
3	_____
4	_____

3. Plan.

Two Way Street will work with you and your staff on a plan to prepare your business to be communication accessible. For example, in-residence programs, staff training, staff surveys, development of communication resources, experiential interactions.

4. Get ready.

Complete the actions identified in point 3.

May 2015
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
31					1	2
3	4	5	6	7	8	9
10	11	12	13	14	15	16
17	18	19	20	21	22	23
24	25	26	27	28	29	30

5. Schedule an assessment.

Once the actions have been completed, contact Two Way Street to schedule the assessment.

6. Get assessed.

A trained communication access assessor (a person with communication difficulty) will complete the communication access assessment for your business or service.

7. Get feedback.

We will provide detailed feedback on the outcome of the assessment.

8. You are awarded the symbol.

If you have met the criteria for communication access, you will be awarded the Communication Access Symbol, which is valid for 12 months.

9. You are recognised.

You will receive your communication access certificate.

10. You are promoted.

Your business or service will be promoted on social media and listed on the Scope Directory of Communication Accessible Places.

For more information about communication access contact

Two Way Street

Phone 0434 266 237

Email tw@twowaystreet.com.au

Website twowaystreet.com.au